

Jesper Beinov – Policy Vice President, Chairman Legal Affairs Committee

Jesper Beinov is a board member in SMEunited, where he serves as Policy Vice President, Chairman of the Legal Affairs Committee.

In his current position as deputy CEO of SMEdenmark, he is responsible for political and legal affairs, analysis and communications. Mr Beinov is appointed by the Danish Minister of Industry & Business as member of Danish Business Regulation Forum, which advises on and monitoring EU implementation.

Before joining SMEdenmark, Jesper Beinov has taken a particular interest in European Affairs.

After graduating as a M.A. in History and Danish from the University of Copenhagen, Jesper Beinov started his career as a consultant in the Danish Parliament for the Liberal Party. Later he worked for the Government in 3 different administrations as personal adviser to ministers (Minister for Finance, Minister of Defense and Minister of Science Technology & Innovation. He has also worked in leading position for different political parties in the Danish Parliament. For almost a decade he was Managing Editor at one of the worlds oldest newspaper, Berlingske Tidende.

Mr. Beinov has also graduated as a Master of European Studies (University of Copenhagen) and as Master of Editorial Management (University of Southern Denmark).

SOCIAL PROFILES:

Linkedin: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/jesperbeinov/> & Twitter: <https://twitter.com/JesperBeinov>

